ROBBERY/SHOOTING INVESTIGATION UPDATE

Greensboro Police Detectives are investigating an armed robbery and shooting of a pizza deliveryman. At approximately 5:10 P. M. officers responded to Barber Park located at 1500 Dans Road in reference to a shooting. When they arrived they located a driver for Domino's Pizza in his car with a gunshot wound. The driver had responded to the 1400 block of Ardmore Drive making a delivery, when 3 black male suspects confronted him. The suspects had previously conspired to rob him and then robbed the victim and later shot him. During the confrontation, a suspect took control of the victim's car and forced him to go to Barber Park where they fled. The victim was transported to Moses Cone Hospital where he has been admitted in serious condition.

The victim has been identified as Robert Martin BM/72 that was employed by Domino's Pizza located at 1056 Alamance Church Road.

Early this morning detectives charged 3 suspects in this case:

Teron Russell Graham
BM/17
1420 Ardmore Drive

Adam Catron
BM 22
901 Ardmore Drive

Phillip Michael Thomas McKinley
BM 16
2405-B East Florida Street

All three suspects were charged with:

- (1) Robbery With a Dangerous Weapon
- (2) 1st Degree Kidnapping
- (3) Assault With A Deadly Weapon With Intent To Kill Inflicting
Serious Bodily Injury

Suspects Graham and McKinley are being held in the Guilford County Jail under seventy-five thousand dollar bond. The suspect Catron is being held under five hundred thousand dollar bond.

The investigation is continuing and we are asking that persons with information about this incident contact the Greensboro Police Department Criminal Investigation Division at 336-373-2255 or Crime Stoppers at 336-373-1000.
